ANDY FIRTH – The only Australian to perform at Carnegie Hall under his own name. This celebrated clarinet genius will give some tips on playing the clarinet. Then we will see him in concert with his jazz quartet for a concert that you will never forget!

BRIAN CATCHLOVE – Member of the clarinet section of the Queensland Symphony Orchestra, Brian will give tips on mouthpiece selection and reed adjustments.

FLOYD WILLIAMS – Legendary Queensland Conservatorium Lecturer in Clarinet, will hold a session on 'Playing Smarter, Playing better'

PHILIP ARKINSTALL – Associate Principal of the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra. Philip made his solo debut at age 15 with the Sydney Symphony. He has since performed with the Queensland Philharmonic, West Australian Symphony and the Tasmanian Symphony as well as contemporary groups including The Alpha Ensemble, The Australia Ensemble and Australysis. From 1998 until 2009, Phil was Principal clarinet with the Malaysian Symphony Orchestra. Philip will host a workshop and perform in concert at the Buffet Crampon Summer Clarinet Festival

DIANA TOLMIE – Freelance professional multi-instrumentalist, Diana will be conducting the ensembles along with FLOYD WILLIAMS

ANDREW BERRINGTON – Woodwind instrument maker will host clarinet maintenance sessions, explaining how to best care for your instrument, and some emergency repair tips

NITZAN KARNI – Alexander Technique practitioner will conduct workshops to help reduce stress and increase stamina in performance.

Accompanist for the event is the incomparable MITCHELL LEIGH
